

Hinged Knee Support

The Alvita Hinged Knee Support is used for slight to moderate sprains of the lateral ligaments, benign chronic instability and to reinforce the anteroposterior stability of the knee. It is also suitable for use in convalescence and ...

Available in: FR

Product Benefits

- › Hinged design enables improved articular mobility
- › Removable lateral straps facilitate maintenance of the knee joint
- › Patellar opening for stabilization and comfort
- › Breathable fabric enables additional user comfort

Key Features

- › Hinged design for enhanced mobility
- › Removable lateral straps
- › Breathable fabric
- › Patellar opening