

Ambidextrous Thumb Support

The Alvita Ambidextrous Thumb Support is designed for the treatment of conditions including rhizarthrosis, arthritic or ligamentary inflammation of the thumb and sprains of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb. The device inc...

Available in: FR

Product Benefits

- › Flexible aluminium splints which can be positioned for use on either thumb to give maximum support and comfort
- › Fastening straps to enable a secure fit.

Key Features

- › Flexible aluminium splints
- › Fastening straps