

Ambidextrous Wrist Hand Support

The Alvita Ambidextrous Wrist Hand Support is designed to support the wrist in instances of contusions, tendonitis, benign sprains of the wrist, and rheumatic fevers. The support features three adjustable, removable straps and an 80...

Available in: FR

Product Benefits

- › Class I medical device according to European Commission Directive (93/42/EEC), ensuring user confidence
- › Flexible aluminium splints which can be positioned for use on either thumb to give maximum support and comfort
- › Adaptable straps allow wearer to find ideal fit for maximum support and comfort
- › 80% interior cotton lining for user comfort
- › Washable for hygienic long-term use

Key Features

- › Class 1 medical device, recognised by European Commission
- › Flexible aluminium splint
- › Adaptable straps
- › 80% interior cotton lining
- › Washable